

Lata Chawla

Lata Chawla has been associated with The Kaleel Jamison Consulting Group, Inc., since 2008 and currently serves as a Consultant Affiliate. She has more than 20 years of experience in human resources and organization development with a range of media and financial organizations, such as Mass Mutual, Comcast, and Time Warner

Before joining KJCG, Lata served as director for training and organizational development at ESPN, Inc. During her 11 years there, she worked on many enterprise-wide initiatives in organizational change, transformation, succession planning and integration while leading growth efforts for many ESPN businesses. She has also overseen staffing and recruitment for the Hartford Life Insurance Company.

A graduate of the University of Hartford, where she studied human resources and organizational behavior, Lata has received her Green Belt-Lean Six Sigma (LSS) and a Human Systems Dynamics Practitioners (HSDP) certification from the HSD Institute. She has participated in management and negotiation programs at Harvard University and graduated from the L.E.A.P. (Leadership Education for Asian Professionals) program at UCLA.